LOED Randolph Churchill, honorary president of the Liverpool Chess Club, is said to be the strongest chess-player in the House of Commons.

According to the Chicago Herald, Professor Garner, who went out to Africa to study monkey language, has had extraordinary success. "I am safe on the coast," writes Professor Garner, "just robbing with quinine, the proud professor of a chimpanzee that can say, 'Tenak-Peketa' which I do not know, the Maori for 'good day, stranger,' a gorilla that knows twenty words of Fijian, and a female orang-outan that has picked up 'Dinner and bitten' from my German valet, and has, judging from her action, quite fallen in love with him. I have also got written down, which is more important, nearly two hundred words of Fijian."
